U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners Recognizes Top Performers

Iselin, NJ, January 30, 2017 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today the recipients of two achievement awards that were given at their annual Partners conference.

The Chairman’s Award is given in recognition of excellence in client service and continued market growth and productivity. Bill Devine and Ray Menna, who lead USRBP’s Mutual, Inc. office in Long Island, NY, and Brad Hoard, the Managing Partner of their U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group office in Tallahassee, FL were this year’s recipients.

“Since they joined us, Bill, Ray, and Brad have been important contributors to our success and this award is in recognition of their many contributions,” said Bob Dughi, Executive Chairman of USRBP.

Kevin Dunn, USRBP’s Chief Information Officer, received the President’s Award in honor of his contributions to the long-term growth of the company. His many accomplishments and technology expertise aid in the fulfillment of USRBP’s vision of being the nation’s premier independent employee benefits and retirement plan specialist.

“Very few individuals have impacted the near-term and long-term growth of the organization more than Kevin. We appreciate his many contributions,” said USRBP’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Mark Skinner.
