Employee Benefit Adviser Profiles U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners in Feature Article

Iselin, NJ, February 24, 2017 – Employee Benefit Adviser, a leading publication in the employee benefits space, in its February/March 2017 issue has profiled U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP), a national independent retirement and benefits services firm. The article, titled “Breaking Down Barriers” and written by Elizabeth Galentine, included a significant profile of USRBP President Mark Skinner, who featured on the cover of the publication.

Through an interview with Mr. Skinner, as well as executives at USRBP, including CIO Kevin Dunn and Managing Partner Gene Tyler, the article details how USRBP is able to leverage its unique business model to achieve outstanding growth and provide first class service to its growing customer base. The article covers the history and development of USRBP and how, through organic growth and acquisitions, it has grown into a major player in the industry.

“[Mark] Skinner is eager to spread the company message, which centers around the value behind breaking down the longstanding barriers between the retirement and health divisions of employee benefits,” writes Ms. Galentine. “A national independent employee benefits and retirement plan provider specializing in the K-12 educator marketplace, USRBP emphasizes the need to integrate retirement and financial concerns into overall benefits practice.”
