U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners Welcomes New Western Divisional Senior Vice President

Iselin, NJ, June 11, 2018 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that Courtney E. Munoz has joined the company as its Western Divisional Senior Vice President and will be based in California.

Courtney, a Certified Financial Planner, has an extensive history in the financial services industry, holding management positions at MassMutual Financial Group and Ameriprise Financial. She is an experienced sales and strategy leader with a proven track record of driving revenue and successfully executing strategic initiatives.

In her new role as Western Divisional Senior Vice President, Courtney will lead the USRBP Partner Firms in the western U.S. and coordinate cross-selling activities to manage and promote USRBP growth. She will report directly to Mark Skinner, President & CEO of U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners.

“We are thrilled to have Courtney join our team. Her experience in working with client-focused financial services professionals blends perfectly with our mission,” said Mark Skinner.
