U.S. Retirement Partners Firm Receives Coveted Award
Texas Company Named A Top Wealth Manager

Iselin, NJ, August 31, 2011 – U.S. Retirement Partners (USRP) announced today that Inspire Financial Group, Inc. (IFG), a firm in USRP’s national network of employee benefits and retirement plan providers, is a recipient of the prestigious 2011 Five Star Wealth ManagerSM Award in the state of Texas.

The Five Star Wealth Manager Program distinguishes the top Advisors and firms by surveying thousands of clients in a given geographic area and names only “best of the best” as Top Wealth Managers.

IFG, with headquarters in Richardson, Texas, was founded in 1997. The organization is lead by Tyson and Korbin King. Through their fourteen person Advisor team, IFG serves over 4,000 clients who have accumulated assets of more than $150M.

“By adhering to our mission of ‘changing the world by helping our clients realize their dreams,’” we have become a leading financial services firm of our type throughout the region. It also confirms what we have always thought; learning about clients’ needs and listening carefully to their individual circumstances will always enable us to ascertain and implement the best strategies for each individual and family,” said Tyson King, IFG President and Founder.

“I was not at all surprised to learn of the recognition awarded to IFG. Inspire Financial Group is a key part of our overall national strategy to partner with only “best in class” financial services firms focused on the school district market,” said Mark M. Skinner, President and CEO of USRP.
