Employee Benefits Consultants, Inc. Joins U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group

Iselin, NJ, September 3, 2013 – U.S. Retirement Partners (USRP) announces the acquisition of its 25th Partner Firm, Employee Benefits Consultants, Inc. (EBCI) of Tallahassee, Florida. EBCI is the 7th firm to join its U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group (USEBSG) division. EBCI will be an integral part of the USRP/USEBSG national network of employee benefits and retirement plan specialists serving the K-12 public school district market.

Managed by President and CEO Brad Hoard, EBCI currently offers a full range of employee benefits solutions to educational, governmental, and private employers in Florida. Services include employee benefits consulting, employee education, and enrollment services.

“We’re excited about joining the U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group team. Our plan is to immediately offer their web-based benefits enrollment and administration system, InRoll, to our existing employer groups and to new clients, as well. We believe their expertise and technology will help us expand throughout the entire state of Florida,” said Brad Hoard.

“EBCI has a solid presence in Florida and is recognized as a leader in employee benefits design and implementation. We’re eager to utilize their benefits expertise to expand our services to all Florida school districts,” said Mark M. Skinner, President and CEO of USRP.
