

Michael Borgailo

Partner

Retirement Planning Associates, Inc.

Michael Borgailo has been a Partner at Retirement Planning Associates, Inc. (RPA), an Orlando-based firm, since 1990. His career concentration has been working in the 403(b) market with public school employees and their families. His expertise has contributed to RPA's established reputation as a vanguard in retirement planning for Florida educators. RPA joined U.S. Retirement Partners in 2009.

Over the years, Mr. Borgailo has prided himself on being aware of pertinent retirement issues for the educational community including DROP, FRS, 403(b) regulations and Special Pay (401(a)) Plans.

Mr. Borgailo holds his Series 6, 63, and 65 FINRA registrations and is a Registered Representative with PlanMember Securities. Born in Queens, NY, Mr. Borgailo moved to central Florida in 1980, where he currently resides with his family. He studied business while attending Seminole State College.
