Mutual, Inc. Hires Chief Operating Officer

Iselin, NJ, August 1, 2017 – U.S. Retirement Partners announced today that its member firm, Mutual, Inc., has hired Kevin J. Cantwell as their Chief Operating Officer. Mutual, Inc. is a leading retirement planning firm on Long Island, New York.

Kevin, a Certified Financial Planner, joined Mutual, Inc. in November 2013 as a Registered Representative, serving the financial and retirement planning needs of clients in the educational, governmental, and non-profit markets. As Chief Operating Officer, he will be coordinating the interactions between staff, advisors, and affiliated companies to provide an outstanding customer experience. Reporting to Mutual's CEO, William Devine, Kevin's responsibilities include overseeing the day-to-day office activities and providing management support to maintain and grow the financial center, including managing and growing the tax practice. "My goal is to maintain an environment that will allow the staff and advisors to assist their clients in achieving the financial and life goals we help them discover," said Kevin.

William Devine said, "We are fortunate to have Kevin available to fill this position. I am confident his background and experience will provide the leadership and guidance to take the firm to the next level."
