U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners Welcomes New Vice President, Business Development Officer

Iselin, NJ, December 3, 2018 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that Anthony S. Taffuri has joined the company as its Vice President Business Development Officer and is based in the New Jersey National Office.

Anthony has extensive experience in management and senior business development roles at organizations such as BlackRock and Merrill Lynch. His expertise includes managing and growing key relationships and promoting business development across multi-state territories.

In his new role as the Business Development Officer, Anthony will be responsible for identifying and evaluating new acquisition opportunities, developing M&A priorities and strategies, and supporting the execution of integration plans for acquired businesses.

“Having Tony as a part of the team is a great addition to our depth. His strong financial and interpersonal skills mesh particularly well with our whole team,” said Mark Skinner, President & CEO of U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners.
