Courtney Munoz Honored with President's Award

Iselin, NJ, February 3, 2020 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that Courtney Munoz, Senior Vice President of Strategic Initiatives at USRBP, received the President's Award in appreciation of her leadership of the western region. In her prior role as Western Divisional Senior Vice President, Courtney was responsible for the management and growth of USRBP Partner Firms in the west.

The California and Texas markets have proven to be robust opportunities for USRBP to deliver high quality services to the markets. Courtney brought together Leadership Teams in both states and coordinated their marketing and services efforts in the western United States.

"This is a well-deserved recognition of Courtney's hard work, dedication and leadership. We look forward to all she can accomplish in her new role as Senior Vice President of Strategic Initiatives," said Megan Schneider, USRBP Chief Operating Officer.

"Courtney has been a tremendous asset to the organization. Her work ethic and focus have set a high bar for her associates and her many contributions have been felt nationally," said Mark Skinner, President and CEO of USRBP.
