Mark M. Skinner Serves as Panelist at Benefits Conference

Workplace Benefits Renaissance

Iselin, NJ, March 2, 2020 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that its President and CEO, Mark M. Skinner, served as a panelist for the "Optimizing Your Revenues & Business Asset Value" learning lab at the Workplace Benefits Renaissance 2020 conference on March 2 in New Orleans. The annual conference is designed to develop and connect peer-to-peer mentors from across the country, provide resources, offer guidance, and share best practices.

Mark has a unique background in both employee benefits and retirement services and, recognizing the fusion of those two segments, has grown USRBP into a thriving national benefits and financial services firm. In his presentation, "Proven Strategies to Grow Your Business," Mark shared established strategies on how entrepreneurs can best grow their businesses by identifying and prioritizing their product and market needs.

Regarding his experience, Mark Skinner said, "It was a terrific group of engaged professionals with insightful questions."
