Jacques S. Pierre Recognized by U.S. Attorney's Office

Iselin, NJ, March 1, 2021 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that Jacques Pierre, USRBP General Counsel, has been recognized by the U.S. Attorney's Office, District of New Jersey, as an accomplished African-American alumni.

The U.S. Attorney's Office in New Jersey hosts a Black History Month Celebration event each year in collaboration with the Department of Justice. Among the alumni also recognized this year were the Honorable Joseph A. Greenaway, Jr., Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; Peter Harvey, first African American Attorney General for the State of New Jersey; the Honorable Paula Dow, the first African American female Attorney General for the State of New Jersey and Superior Court Judge; Mark Larkins, Senior Counsel at Johnson and Johnson, LLP; and Richard Constable, Executive Vice President and Global Head of Government Affairs and Social Impact at Madison Square Garden Entertainment Corp.

Jacques joined USRBP in August 2020. Mark Skinner, President & CEO of USRBP commented, "Jacques has become an invaluable member of the senior leadership team and quickly made the transition from a public role to a private corporate role. We proudly join the U.S. Attorney's Office in recognizing Jacques."
