

Dan Jund

Consultant

Dan Jund is a Managing Partner of National Benefit Partners (NBP), and a Consultant of parent company U.S. Employee Benefits Services Group. In 2005 Dan co-founded National Benefit Partners with his partner, Frank Doherty. With more than 55 Allied Distributors, NBP is the leading IMO in the voluntary benefits market throughout the country.

Prior to starting NBP, Dan was President and CEO of Transamerica Assurance Company and Chief Marketing Officer for Transamerica/Occidental. In 1990 he assumed responsibility for Transamerica's start-up Worksite Marketing Company in developing an innovative worksite product portfolio, including Universal Life with Living Benefits, and Long Term Care and Critical Illness. Sales grew from less than 1 Million in sales in 1990 to 80+ Million by year- end 2001.