

Kevin J. Cantwell

Managing Partner

Mutual, Inc.

Kevin J. Cantwell is the Managing Partner of Mutual, Inc., a member of U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners, and helps his clients manage their savings and plan for retirement. Prior to joining Mutual, Kevin managed a local insurance agency for more than 19 years, serving the insurance needs of individuals and small business owners and their families on Long Island. Since then, he has turned his focus toward helping to design a customized investment program utilizing products and planning tools to help clients achieve their investment goals. Kevin understands that every investor is unique, and he works with his clients to construct strategies that are suited for their individual circumstances.

Kevin holds Life and Health Insurance and Property and Casualty Insurance licenses, as well as Series 7, 63 and 66 securities licenses. He received an associate degree in Business from Suffolk Community College, a bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's College in Patchogue, and a Master of Business Administration degree in Accounting from St. Joseph's College.

Kevin is a life-long resident of Long Island and has been involved in civic and volunteer activities for many years. He has served as a religious education teacher, a little league coach, and on the board of several local organizations, including the Lions Club, Cornell Cooperative Extension and North Brookhaven Chamber of Commerce, as well as an officer of the Northern Brookhaven Toastmasters Club.