U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners Welcomes Director of Corporate Development

Iselin, NJ, December 6, 2021 – U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners (USRBP) announced today that Jason Wang has joined the company as its Director of Corporate Development.

Jason has extensive experience in the mergers and acquisitions arena and most recently held positions at United Urology Group and Jefferies LLC in their M&A division, where he was responsible for deal negotiation, pre-closing integration, and numerous transactions spanning across consumer, industrials, fintech, and tech-enabled service verticals.

In his new role as Director of Corporate Development with USRBP, Jason’s responsibilities include identifying and evaluating new acquisition opportunities, developing M&A priorities and strategies, and supporting the execution of integration plans for acquired businesses.

“Jason has a terrific background and his experience will be of great assistance to our continued growth. He is an ideal fit with our culture and brings great energy and enthusiasm to the role. We look forward to his success,” said Mark Skinner, USRBP Founder & CEO.
