ASBO International Announces U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners as Affinity Partner

Ashburn, VA – The Association of School Business Officials International \(ASBO\) is pleased to welcome U.S. Retirement & Benefits Partners \(USRBP\) as the newest Affinity Partner in its Corporate Alliance Partnership (CAP) program. Through this partnership, ASBO International members will gain access to resources and tools designed to have a powerful impact on their ability to support educators, students, and their districts.

"We are very excited to be strengthening our long-standing relationship with USRBP," says Jim Rowan, CAE, SFO, ASBO International's Executive Director. "As an Affinity Partner, USRBP joins an elite network of companies that are dedicated to supporting and empowering our global community of school business professionals."

USRBP provides strategic professional benefits planning and design options that include an extensive selection of related services and solutions, education, and support. Additionally, USRBP's expert capabilities support employers and employees with related issues such as special pay and FICA alternative plans, actuarial services, benefits-decision support technology, investment advisory services, and more.

"We deeply align with ASBO's mission and have spent decades helping the people who ensure our schools and communities thrive. Health and financial wellness—as well as a retirement earned through years of dedication to educating and elevating our children—should be accessible, affordable, and impactful. This partnership allows us to help even more people who make up this incredible community, an opportunity for which we are so excited and thankful," says Chief Executive Officer Megan Schneider.
